Start-up Visa for Canada, Who Should Apply?

- a) Canada Start-up Program offers an opportunity to applicants with the capability to invest or participate in an idea or concept in Canada.
- b) Canada Start-up visa offers an excellent pathway for applicants not qualified under the Canada Express Entry because of Occupational, English Language or age restrictions or higher CRS ranking.
- c) Canada Start-up Visa Program offers entrepreneurs and skilled professionals the needed pathway in sailing through the otherwise complex Canadian Immigration Process.

Have a Qualifying Business

- a) Each aspirant holds 10% or more of the voting rights attached to all corporation shares outstanding at that time (a maximum of 5 individuals may apply to owners).
- b) You receive a letter of support (LOS) from the DO. To get the letter of support, one must take the following steps:
 - i. Contact the designated organization (DO) to determine how to receive its backing.
 - ii. Persuade the organization that you have a business concept that is worth backing.
 - iii. Obtain a letter of support from the nominated group.

After the designated body accepts your idea, you will get a letter of support (LOS) from it. You will include this LOS at the time of presenting your application. LOS confirms that your business idea has support from the venture capital fund, angel investor group, or business incubator.

The body will also send a commitment certificate to Canadian Immigration Agencies like IRCC. IRCC will review your application, the letter of support, and the DO's commitment certificate to review your PR visa application. IRCC could ask you for additional business details to take a final decision on your petition.

Fulfil the Language Requirements

You must illustrate that you fulfil or surpass the Canadian Language Benchmark (CLB) 5 in the IELTS English Language test. Effectively, this means the following score under each module.

Speaking - 5

Reading - 4

Listening - 5

Writing - 5

Bring Sufficient Funds to settle down in Canada*

When submitting your application, you'll be required to provide evidence that you possess the necessary funds to support yourself and your dependents, post you land in the overseas hotspot. You are not allowed to borrow this money from any other individual. While the total funds you require depend on the actual size of your family, this gets updated every year.

Number of Family Members	Funds Required (in Canadian dollars)*
